

LAMBDA DELTA NEWS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The season of Thanksgiving and gratitude is upon us and although it's cliché, having an attitude of gratitude is important. Gratitude shifts our mindset. It helps us shift our focus from ourselves to appreciating someone or something. Having gratitude gives us the opportunity to express thankfulness for every part of our life. An attitude of gratitude means making the conscious habit of expressing appreciation on a regular basis for big and small things alike. We may be grateful for our friendships, family, health, business, material items, food in our cupboards, running water in our homes, and our overall sense of well-being.

When I reflect on Lambda Delta, I can't but have an attitude of gratitude. I am thankful for each of you that I have had a chance to get to know and laugh with over these past few years. Operating from a place of abundance reminds me that being a part of Lambda Delta is a privilege and honor. Cultivating a grateful mindset helps us feel happier, more positive, and more compassionate with ourselves and others around us. Focusing on what makes us feel grateful allows us to develop better habits of expressing appreciation for the people and things that matter most in our life. Gratitude is a thankful appreciation for what we have, not what we lack. We have so much. We are WONDERful Women. Join me in having an attitude of gratitude throughout this season.

Happy Thanksgiving,

Quinn
